

Plebiscite 1: Currently, there is a task force underway to study what McGill University will look like in twenty years. Do you think that there is a shortage of lounge space for students on campus?
yes	715 (67.4)%
no	294 (27.7)%
Spoiled	52 (4.9)%
TOTAL:	1061
Plebiscite 2: Do you think that there is a shortage of club office and meeting space on campus?
yes	539 (50.8)%
no	450 (42.4)%
Spoiled	72 (6.8)%
TOTAL:	1061
Plebiscite 3: Do you think that there is a shortage of quality study space on campus?
yes	556 (52.4)%
no	457 (43.1)%
Spoiled	48 (4.5)%
TOTAL:	1061
Plebiscite 4: In the future do you think there will be a need for another building along the same lines as the Shatner University Centre?
yes	588 (55.4)%
no	404 (38.1)%
Spoiled	69 (6.5)%
TOTAL:	1061
Plebiscite 5: Do you believe that McGill should construct a multi-faith centre on campus?
yes	497 (46.8)%
no	503 (47.4)%
Spoiled	61 (5.7)%
TOTAL:	1061
Plebiscite 6: Do you think that online lecture recordings and other teaching aids enhance your academic experience?
yes	934 (88.0)%
no	80 (7.5)%
Spoiled	47 (4.4)%
TOTAL:	1061

Our voter turnout was 16.4 % of the first year student population voting for FYCC, and 5.4% of the total undergraduate population. This is characteristic of a fall electoral period in which there were no referendum questions that were addressed to the full student population.